Project Title: Grounded and Attributed AI Tutoring: A 2×2 Factorial Study of Learning Experience and Learning Outcomes

Dear Participant,

Thank you for agreeing to participate in this questionnaire survey in connection with my research at the University of Nottingham Ningbo China. The project is a study of how two AI tutoring features — grounding answers in slide content and displaying verifiable sources — shape learners' experience and performance.

Your participation in the survey is voluntary. You are able to withdraw from the survey at any time and to request that the information you have provided is not used in the project prior the completion of the data processing. Any information provided will be confidential. Your identity will not be disclosed in any use of the information you have supplied during the survey.

The research project has been reviewed according to the ethical review processes in place in the University of Nottingham Ningbo China. These processes are governed by the University's Code of Research Conduct and Research Ethics. Should you have any question now or in the future, please contact me or my supervisor. Should you have concerns related to my conduct of the survey or research ethics, please contact my supervisor or the University's Research Integrity and Ethics Committee.

Yours truly,
Lijie Zheng
